

Department: Economics

Graduate School: Social Sciences

Program Name: Master's in Economics

Program Objective: The Master's Program in the Economics Department aims to provide its students with a rigorous training in the areas of economics and econometrics, a through knowledge of which is essential for them in order to follow successful academic or professional careers in universities, research-oriented organizations or in business. In addition to training in basic economics and econometrics, the Economics Master's Program provides guidance in research methods and advise students on the preparation of their dissertations. The courses are designed to provide students with a deep knowledge in Economic Theory and through understanding of European Union policy and European Economy in general which as an economic block realizes 30 percent of the World production and trade.

Program option 1:The thesis option of Economics Master's Program consists of 7 courses+seminar+thesis(Msc)-Master of Science

Semester	Course Code	Course Name	Credits
I.Semester	ECO 501	Microeconomics:Theory and Policy	3
	ECO 503	Econometrics	3
	ECO 5XX	Area Elective	3
	ECO 5XX	Area Elective	3
II.Semester	ECO 502	Macroeconomics:Theory and Policy	3
	GCC 603	Scientific Research Methods and Ethics	3
	ECO 5XX	Area Elective	3
	ECO 595	Seminar	0
III.Semester	ECO 500	Thesis	0
IV.Semester	ECO 500	Thesis	0

Program option 2:The non-thesis option of Economics Master's Program consists of 10 courses+Project Course(MA)-Master of Art

Semester	Course Code	Course Name	Credits
I.Semester	ECO 501	Microeconomics:Theory and Policy	3
	ECO 503	Econometrics	3
	ECO 5XX	Area Elective	3
	ECO 5XX	Area Elective	3
II.Semester	ECO 502	Macroeconomics:Theory and Policy	3
	GCC 603	Scientific Research Methods and Ethics	3
	ECO 5XX	Area Elective	3
	ECO 5XX	Area Elective	3
III.Semester	ECO 5XX	Area Elective	3
	ECO 5XX	Area Elective	3
	ECO 596	Project	